Grand Finalist—Australia’s Got Talent 2011

For more about Liam, please visit www.liamburrows.net

At just 20 years of age, the sensational Liam Burrows is a truly prodigious and gifted performer. His amazing talent has certainly kept him in high demand.

Over the past two and a half years Liam has performed nearly 200 corporate and private shows (including many for some of the largest corporations and charities in Australia) and headlined at some of Australia's most popular venues including Crown Casino, Jupiters Casino, Twin Towns Services Club and at events including the Broadbeach Jazz Festival, Norfolk Island Jazz Festival, Adelaide Hill's Jazz Festival, Noosa Jazz Festival (twice) and the Manly Jazz Festival.

Besides being on Australia's Got Talent, Liam has appeared on Channel 7 Melbourne's Good Friday Telethon (where he performed two songs with a large orchestra), Channel 10's The Circle and Channel 7's The Morning Show (twice) and Channel 7 Perth's telethon at which time he received a standing ovation.

Since July 2011 he has enjoyed a meteoric rise to the top of the music scene whilst continuing to develop as an exceptional and unique entertainer, performing all over Australia as well as overseas.

He has earned the respect of fellow professionals and stunned the public with a mature vocal style and stage presence that is way beyond his years.

Receiving accolades is not new to Liam. In 2009, when just 14, he captivated audiences at the famous Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland and received a standing ovation.

In 2012 Liam was thrilled to be named “BEST JAZZ ARTIST” at the Australian Music Industry’s MusicOz Awards. He also won Second Place in the Vocal Performance category of the International Unsigned-Only Music Competition. With almost 7,500 entries from over 80 countries, this was a remarkable achievement. In 2013 he won an Australian Entertainment MO Award for live performance.

As a Finalist in the 2013 Unsigned Only Music Competition, Liam won an “Honourable Mention” for his rendition of an original song, “You Shook Me” which is yet to be released. There were over 9,000 entries from over 100 countries worldwide. Only 1% of all entries made to the finalist status and even fewer received awards. He was also a Finalist in the 2013 MusicOz Awards.

Liam has also independently released his own album “All Of Me” and this has achieved critical acclaim and airplay around the world.

Recently he has been in the studio writing and recording new material.

Raves About Liam

“Liam is not only a gifted Jazz vocalist, he is also an exceptional young man who is a great ambassador for Jazz. He is completely dedicated to his art and his love for Jazz is evident in all he does. He is passionate about bringing the musical style we both love to the general public.”

James Morrison

(internationally renowned award-winning jazz musician and composer)

“This young man is a natural entertainer and a musician of extraordinary gifts. He has the ability to excite a crowd merely by his presence.”

Dorian Mode

(award-winning musician and songwriter)

“Liam Burrows is a prodigious, young musical talent who has the skill, charm and ability to enable him to enjoy a wonderful career.”

Warren Wills

(international award-winning composer and musical director)

“I have accompanied many International jazz artists over the years and I was most impressed with this talented young man. The quality of Liam’s voice shows a strong dedication to the craft and the professionalism with which he approached his concerts and the preparation for performances, displayed dedication far beyond what one would normally associate with his young age. He is a truly gifted performer and audiences love him.”

Michael Nelson

(musical director and writer)

“Liam Burrows is a very talented young performer with a bright future. His vocal tone, musicality and skills as an entertainer are well beyond his years. Liam is respected by his peers and loved by his audiences. He is a fantastic singer. I recommend him.”

John Foreman

(award-winning musical director and composer)

“Liam occurs to me like a true star – when he opens his mouth pure magic flows out. I was utterly entranced. He has a huge, huge future. “

James Roche

(award-winning songwriter and musician)

Liam Burrows Show Reviews

I'd like to thank Liam and the wonderful backing band for a very classy performance and a delightful evening. The feedback we've had from patrons has been sensational. Not only was it a very polished and professional performance, Liam endeared himself to the audience with communication skills and maturity beyond his years. I think the standing ovations and the positive feedback says it all. Liam will continue to realize his potential and enormous talent, enabling him to escalate into major venues. He deserves the adulation and success that awaits him.

Liam Burrows Show Reviews

“A consummate performer”
“Liam absolutely floored me”
“The show was the full package of entertainment”

The feedback about Liam was very positive. A typical comment was “The ultimate professional at his young age”. Our patrons know a quality performer when they see one and Liam certainly met their expectations.
